Time Out

Have a little Miss Sass on your hands? A Mister Trouble? A Time Out may be in order and a fun new product found at www.ComfiCozi.com is just what you need. Sure you could make them sit in a regular chair but it's just not as fun, or stylish.

Theoretically while the child is sitting on this spot or standing if you are a real meanie, they are in a "time out" as their punishment. I guess this means that if I sit on mine no one can bother me right? Hmm, will have to try this out - I have a book that I need to finish!

We are lucky enough to have a pink Time Out Spot on hand for when Ruby needs one. They also come in blue for the bad boy in your home. By the way it is big enough for your hubby's chunky butt too.
