

baby shower and new birth gift, and Babycakes of Scottsdale's (888/302-BABY) product really takes the cake. Beautifully packaged, i.e. no gift wrap necessary, the Babycakes are stuffed with blankets, shirts, socks, sleepers, caps and much more. Babycakes arrive adorned with silk flowers, glossy ball accents, pearls and glammed-up bling. The one, two and three tiered Babycakes are available in pink and blue with different quantities of clothing and accessories.

Time Out Spots (714/856-6889) takes a lighthearted approach to motherhood, and the accompanying stress, with the Time Out T-Shirts. An adult woman's shirt reads "Mommy Needs a Time Out" and the toddler and infant shirts read "Needs a Time Out." The humorous pieces make light of the time-honored discipline technique, but the company began as a way for parents to make time out effective. Heather Sievers, the company's founder, realized that she needed a special place in her home for time out when her child misbehaved. The solution she created was the Time Out Spot Rug, a special place to eliminate distractions. But, being the good-humored mom she is, Sievers also made the shirts to complement the rug. Time Out Spots also makes a shirt just for daddy.

Any parent will tell you that accidents can happen anywhere and at any time. Babysparewear (818/636-9227) has a simple tool to help moms keep their children clean when they're away from home. The company's fashion fix kits are emergency clothing packs that include a long-sleeve and short-sleeve shirt, and a pair of pants in a compact case with a zipper pocket to hold an extra diaper and wipes. The travel case eliminates the need to pack extra clothes in a diaper bag, and keeps babies clean and comfortable no matter what they get into. Babysparewear has also introduced a mini makeover kit, which includes a quick change outfit (one shirt and pants) in a small pouch that will fit into a purse.

Babysparewear (10800 Ventura Blvd., Studio City and toddlers, which is small enough to be kept room for an extr